

We follow a recruiting and screening driven hiring approach

At Weiser Security, we attribute our proven success to the strength of our employees. We follow a recruiting and screening driven hiring approach that guarantees the placement and retention of security professionals that are motivated, qualified and custom fit for each of your unique security needs.

This is why our approach consists on using a building block that is based on a foundation built by hiring the right employees. Unlike our competitors, we focus on people first. Candidates must pass:

12 background standards

16 physical and mental standards

16 step selection process

Our promise to our clients is that we will "Employ only the most dependable and reliable." By making it through our screening process, employees have demonstrated such traits and are among the best.
